

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

----- x
SECURITIES INVESTOR
PROTECTION CORPORATION,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

v.

BERNARD L. MADOFF INVESTMENT
SECURITIES LLC,

Defendant.
----- x

SIPA LIQUIDATION
(Substantively Consolidated)
Adv. Pro. No. 08-10789 (BRL)

In re:

BERNARD L. MADOFF,

Debtor.
----- x

Bankr. Case No. 08-1789 (BRL)

FILED
U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
2010 DEC 10 A 8:40
S.D. OF N.Y.

OBJECTION TO TRUSTEE'S DETERMINATION OF CLAIM

On behalf of Bryant Finerson ("Customer"), Sterling Equities Associates ("Sterling"), as sponsor of the Sterling Equities Employees Retirement Plan ("Retirement Plan" or "Plan"), hereby objects to the Notice of Trustee's Determination of Claim (the "Determination") dated November 12, 2010.

BACKGROUND

1. The Customer was an investor with BLMIS through his participation in the Sterling Equities Employees Retirement Plan, a participant-directed 401(k) plan that held an account at BLMIS denominated 1KW182. The Customer is a former employee of Sterling, the Retirement Plan's sponsor.

2. On June 18, 2009, the Customer filed a customer claim, with supporting documents (together, the "Claim"), which the Trustee has designated as Claim No. 010003. The Claim is incorporated herein by reference.

3. On or about November 12, 2010, the Trustee in this matter (the "Trustee") sent the Determination to the Customer, care of Sterling, which denied the Claim in its entirety. The Determination states only that the Customer did not have an account with Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities ("BLMIS") and, thus, is not a customer under the Securities Investor Protection Act ("SIPA"). The Determination offers no other basis for the denial of the Claim in full.

4. In connection with the determination of claims for claimants who did not have an account in his name at BLMIS ("the Customer Issue"), a scheduling order was entered regarding motion practice and a hearing concerning the Customer Issue. That motion practice and hearing, however, indisputably did not address ERISA claimants, such as Customer.

5. Since receipt of the Customer's Determination, Sterling has undertaken significant efforts to try to reach the Customer concerning his Determination, including, but not limited to, sending emails, placing phone calls, and utilizing the Internet and Internet search engines.

6. As of the date of this Objection, Sterling has been unable to locate or communicate with the Customer regarding the Determination. As a result, Sterling files this Objection to protect the Customer's rights.

GROUND FOR OBJECTION

7. As required by this Court's December 23, 2008 "Order Approving Form and Manner of Publication and Mailing of Notices, Specifying Procedures for Filing, Determination and Adjudication of Claims and Providing Other Relief" (the "Claims Procedures Order"), the Customer files this Objection to preserve all claims and defenses set forth in the Claim.

8. The Customer is a "customer" of the debtor as defined by the plain language of SIPA and relevant case law because the Customer entrusted money to BLMIS for the purpose of investing, trading, or participating in the securities market. 15 U.S.C. § 78lll(2)(A).

9. As the Sterling Equities Employees Retirement Plan is a participant-directed plan, the Customer affirmatively elected to invest retirement savings with BLMIS, which evidences the usual traits of a customer relationship with the debtor. Participant-directed retirement plans are unique in nature because, unlike defined benefit plans, participants exercise direct control over their investments.

10. The Customer is a "customer" of the debtor irrespective of whether the Customer's name was on the account, as the name of a BLMIS account is not determinative of customer status.

11. The Customer also objects to the denial of the contingent and other claims set forth in the Claim. As noted, the Trustee has offered no basis for the denial.

Dated: Great Neck, New York
December __, 2010

Sterling Equities Associates, Plan
Sponsor, on behalf of Bryant Finerson

By:

Partner, Sterling Equities Associates